

BOLSHEVISM SCORED BY SAMUEL GOMPERS

President of American Federation of Labor Utters Last Word in Magazine

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Writing in the current number of the Federalist, official organ of the American Federation of Labor, Samuel Gompers, condemns Bolshevism, "completely, finally and for all time." The American labor leader declared he doubts whether the propaganda which emanates from the Bolshevik organization itself is more effective than that "conducted by those who claim to be entirely detached from Russian influence and Russian pay roys." He says he doubts whether publications issued by Russian Bolshevik agents have as great an effect in America as those "which like to be known as 'journals of opinion' such as The Nation, The Dial, and The New Republic."

Mr. Gompers makes an extended reference to the argument that the American people know little about what is going on in Russia and the argument that it is unfair and unwise to pass judgment.

"We do not have to wait for information about the form of government existing in what is called soviet Russia," he said, "all the information necessary to the passing of judgment on Bolshevism and the system of government and as a state of society, is at hand from sources that are authentic. The plea of those misguided persons in America who say 'Wait for facts before passing judgment' is nothing more than an excuse which it is hoped will gain time for the Russian experiment and enable it to spread to other countries."

Quoting from the new Bolshevik constitution, Mr. Gompers points out that while the Fifth Pan-Russian congress declares for a dictatorship of the proletariat and the poorest peasantry, a great portion of the peasantry is disfranchised and the largest Bolshevik estimate of the proletariat calculates them as only one-fifth of the number of peasants. Even a fairly prosperous working man, by this calculation, Mr. Gompers says, is not a proletarian. Bolshevik statistics, he says, show that the Bolshevik minority does not even represent the masses of factory workers in Moscow, the Bolshevik stronghold.

He quotes a dispatch from Russia trade unionists to W. A. Appleton, president of the international federation of trade unions, which declares that Bolsheviks have split up the reserve funds of trade unions, throttled the labor press, killed labor organizations, split up trade unions as a class, and put down strikes by "force of arms and plentiful executions."

"In all concepts of freedom within the American nation," says Mr. Gompers, "one fundamental principle is that any involuntary servitude, that is, compulsory labor, shall not be enforced upon the working people." He quotes the amendment to the federal constitution which reads:

"That concept and the spirit of that amendment have been entirely reversed by the constitution of Bolshevism which provides for and enforces compulsory labor. . . . The plea to withhold judgment is a last desperate attempt to win favor from the American people for a system of government which by the confession of its own advocate and defenders is foreign to every concept of the American republic. We know about Russia. We know about Bolshevism. We know the pitiless story of cruelty and intolerance and we know the autocratic concept that underlies the minority dictatorship which is hailed to the world by its dupes and advocates as the most perfect state of society yet devised. We know about it and we condemn it completely, finally and for all time."

Stanford Athletes Trying to Get Into Olympic Tryouts

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Jan. 29.—Continuing his campaign to get western athletes on the teams which will represent the United States in the seventh Olympic games, H. V. Maloney, trainer at Stanford, has written Frederick Ruben, secretary of the A. A. U., in New York, recommending several track athletes who will be on hand when the Olympic tryouts commence.

In regard to the entry of an American rugby team in the Olympic schedule, Maloney said:

"During the last Olympic games America was accused of having entries only in events where she was almost sure to excel. The sending of a rugby team to Antwerp, especially as rugby is essentially a foreign pastime would tend to set at rest any such

RUB ON SPRAINS, PAINS, SWELLING

Don't Suffer, Relief Comes the Moment You Rub With
"St. Jacobs Liniment"

Don't stay crippled! Rub this soothing, penetrating liniment right into the sprain, ache or strain, and out comes pain, soreness, stiffness and swelling.

Nothing else penetrates, heals and strengthens the injured muscles, nerves, tendons and ligaments so promptly. It doesn't burn or discolor the skin and can not cause injury. Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle from any drug store now—limber up! Rub the misery right out. A moment after "St. Jacobs Liniment" is applied you can not feel the slightest pain or soreness, and you can go about your regular duties.

"St. Jacobs Liniment" conquers pain. It has been used effectively for sprains, strains, soreness and stiffness for 60 years—six gold medal awards.—Advertisement.

After the recent rugby tournament of the combined Stanford, California rugby team, together with the marked success of the American rugby team during the inter-Alleied games, I am positive that the Pacific coast could furnish a rugby team to be reckoned with.

Maloney has recommended several track and field aspirants who are now going into a period of training. E. Reginald Caughy of Ukiah, California, who won the shot-out for America in the inter-Alleied games, R. L. Templeton of Palo Alto, California, who placed third in the high-jump in the over seas meet, and J. D. House of Riverside, California, one of America's representatives in the hurdles, are all going into training in preparation for the Olympic tryouts.

Other men suggested by Maloney for track and field events are: Norman A. Greene of Palo Alto, California, Stanford pole vaulter, who has several times cleared 12 feet 6 inches; Willard M. Wells, of Portland, Oregon, a four event winner in the last Stanford-California meet; and Morris Kirksey of Eagle Rock, California, national junior champion in the sprints.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 10c and 25c.

Republicans Assail Democratic Party

BISMARCK, N. D., Jan. 29.—North Dakota Republicans, at a state convention here adopted resolutions assailing "the waste and extravagance" of the present national administration and suggesting support for General Leonard Wood, Governor Löwen of Minnesota, Senator Harrison of Ohio, and others as party national leaders. The delegates listened to an address of Senator Alexander of North Dakota, nominated national committee chairman, and then elected to the national convention at Chicago.

Taxpayers Must Not Estimate Incomes

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Abolishment of tentative returns on income taxes, in effect for several years, was announced today by Commissioner Loper, of the internal revenue bureau, in making a report on 1919 incomes, taxpayers will not be permitted to estimate their incomes, or their taxes. The correct amount of taxes, Mr. Loper warned, must be in the hands of revenue collectors by March 15.

Internal revenue officials have arranged, however, to take care of exceptional cases. If the taxpayer is unable to complete his tax return within the specified time limit, either because of illness or absence from the country, authority has been given for a thirty-day extension of time.

MILITARY TRAINING ESTIMATE TOO HIGH

Senate Chairman Declares that Mondell Statement on Annual Cost, $400,000,000, is High

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Chairman Wadsworth of the senate military committee which agreed Monday to report favorably on a compulsory universal military training plan, declared that Representative Mondell of Wyoming, Republican leader of the house, was incorrect in his statements that one billion dollars would be required to administer the army reorganization bill with its universal training provision. War department estimates, Chairman Wadsworth said, showed that the annual cost would be approximately $400,000,000 less than the figure set by Representative Mondell.

These estimates the senate chairman said, were prepared on the theory that the regular army and national guard would be maintained at the authorized maximum strength and without taking into account the enormous quantities of surplus stocks of equipment now on hand. Absence of adequate training facilities for the national guard, he added, leads the committee to believe, however, that instead of the national guard totaling $25,000 as provided by the senate army bill, it will not exceed $50,000.

"Taking into account these figures," the statement continued, "the committee has revised the estimates of the war department and believes that the annual cost of the proposed military establishment will run as follows: 1921, $699,896,000; 1922, $623,545,000; 1923, $623,580,000; 1924, $623,757,000; 1925, $611,781,000; and 1926, $599,987,000."

"In considering these estimates, it should be remembered that they include the cost of the permanent personnel or regular army, the national guard, the transportation, subsistence, clothing, laundry, medical attendance and pay of all the young men to be trained and all the elements of overhead, including maintenance and repair of all buildings and utilities. In other words, no element of cost has been left out of this estimate. It will not be necessary to enlarge our present establishment, nor to embark upon new construction."

Senator Wadsworth estimated in 1921 the average cost of a trained soldier produced under the universal training system, would be $509, while in 1926 it would be only $170 while today $1800 is required annually to support a soldier in the regular army.

The Best Cough Syrup is Home-made.

Here's an easy way to save 50¢ and get the best cough remedy
you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you a letter about it? When you do, you will understand why thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's a dry, harsh, tickling cough, that's the worst. It's the cough that the war it takes hold of a cough will quickly earn it a permanent place in your home.

Take a glass bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex, then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup instead of sugar. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times the cost. Now that's a really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosen a dry, harsh, tickling cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, colds, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions. It's the only one of its kind. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Sec. Baker Pushing Recruiting Campaign

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Secretary Baker has addressed a letter to the governor of each state requesting his official co-operation in the nationwide recruiting drive to be inaugurated by the war department and to be intensified during the week of February 22 to 29, which is to be made national enlistment week. The governors were asked to issue proclamations calling the attention of their citizens to the importance of the advantages offered in the new "citizen army" and otherwise to assist in the effort to bring the army up to the full authorized strength.

The national campaign, it was said, has been organized on a scale even more ambitious than the wartime liberty loan drive. Not only the loan organization of the treasury, the postmasters and patriotic civilian societies will be used but also the clergy.

BALANCED FARMING.

By DR. F. S. HARRIS.

Director Experiment Station, U. A. C. During the period of the war, farmers were called upon to produce the things that were necessary in the emergency. This often led to unbalanced systems of farming. It became necessary to raise the same crop year after year on the same land regardless of its effect on the soil. It was more important to win the war than to keep the land in good condition. Now that the war is over, however, it is the duty to return to sound systems of farming.

Practices that were justifiable during the emergency should no longer be tolerated. The government does not longer ask the farmer to sacrifice his own interest by raising any particular crop. He is at liberty to farm in the way that would be most profitable. He is merely given the ever-welcome advice to save as much as possible and to produce as efficiently and as cheaply as he can. The present call is not for any particular crop, but to place the farm on a well-balanced system that will yield the highest profit to the farmer and, at the same time, keep the land in a high state of productivity.

In the past the farmer made large profits from certain products on account of war prices, but he must not conclude that the same high prices must continue—likely they will not. This is a very poor time for speculation in farming; the results are too uncertain. It is a splendid time for the farmer who has been prosperous to set his house in order, to pay his debts, and to put his business on a permanent basis. Never was the outlook better for the farmer who practices good standard methods, and never were prospects poorer for the

Rippling Rhymes

By WALT MASON.

Me and Puds Simkins an' Sam Cross was standing around the land pole talking about different things such as the treaty of peace and weather more people would be sailors if they could wear soldiers uniforms, and Sid Hunt came up with his fox terrier Teddy, saying Hello fellows, Teddy knows a great new trick.

Aw, us fellows sed, and Sid Hunt sed, Wats you awing about, wats the matter with his tricks?

His tricks is all rite, its the way he does them aint eny good, sed Puds Simkins, and Sid Hunt sed, Is that so, well I jest bet enybody a sent that Teddy can tell the time by his watch.

Wich we all would bet him, only Puds Simkins was the only one had a sent, saying, Heers a sent, I bet you. Ill be state holder, I sed and Puds gave me his sent and Sid Hunt gave me a sent and took out his watch, saying, Now Teddy, tell me wat time it is by my watch.

And he stuck the watch rite up to Teddys face, saying, Wat time is it Teddy, wat time it is? Wich Teddy jest licked the watch with his tung and didnt say enything, and Sid sed, There you are I win.

The heck you do, who told you you do, like fun go do, he didnt say enytime at all, sed Puds.

Serttenty he didnt, because theres no time on my watch, it aint got eny hands, sed Sid. Wich he showed it to us, and it didnt, Sid saying, Give me the 2 cents Benny.

Hay, go on, wait a minnit, sed Puds the dog didnt know weather the watch had hands or not, wats those 2 cents, Benny.

The doose he didnt, sertenly he did, give me those 2 cents, sed Sid. Me thinking, Gosh, G. I dont know who won. And I sed, You you can scramble for the 2 cents. And I throo them up in the air and Puds and Sid scrambled and each got one and kept it.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.

Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Bryan Renews Attack on Governor Edwards

BRISTOL, Va., Jan. 29.—William J. Bryan declared in an address here that although he did not want the liquor question brought into the presidential race the people should demand that the Republican party announce its stand on the prohibition question. Renewing his attack on Governor Edwards of New Jersey, Mr. Bryan asserted that the governor was supported by the liquor interests and that Governor Edwards was disturbing the harmony of the party.

"I have suffered more than any other man from lack of harmony in the Democratic party," he added, "and I am not disturbing the party's harmony. I want it."
